Commack man indicted for hacking

About the D.A.'s Office

A 21-year-old Commack man has been indicted by a Suffolk County Grand Jury on first degree Computer Tampering charges. Brian J. Brun will be arraigned Thursday, June 27 before Judge Joseph Farneti in Riverhead.

Court Calendar

Press Releases & Media Coverage

The Suffolk County Police Computer Crime Unit arrested Brun for disrupting the business operations of his former employer and the firm's clients. The company, Access Highway in Central Islip, fired Brun on May 17 and soon experienced problems in its delivery of Internet and other services to several clients.

Press Releases - Archived

DA Speeches & Remarks

Two search warrants were executed at Brun's home at 84 Florida Avenue. Police found pirated computer software and other evidence in the house. The charge of Computer Tampering alleges that Brun intentionally altered computer data essential to the operation of networks systems operated by Access Highway. Brun's alleged hacking damaged Access Highway's operations costing the firm, according to the indictment, over $50,000 in damages.

Criminal Justice Procedures

Crime Victims Service Unit

Criminal History Categories

First degree Computer Tampering is a felony punishable by a prison term of 7 and one-half to 15 years. Brun was also charged with Criminal Mischief in the second degree, a D felony carrying a prison term of 3 and one-half to 7 years.

Start at the beginning and read through the first few pages of issues regarding the FreeSpeechStore. I also suggest you read:

<http://groups.google.com/groups?hl=en&lr=&safe=off&frame=right&th=8a5561393dce609&seekm=415d9716.34117093%40localhost.dot.net#link1>

That range is not listed as an open relay. How did you come up with it being an open relay? The only responses our system gives back are for Spam Source and Shoot On Sight.

> We also read the statement "legal threats." Would you specify how Legal threats are one of the major reasons he is listed. If you'll look at our listing policies, the FSS is listed under our Shoot On Sight policy, which states that we _will_ list any provider/individual/company that makes legal threats towards us over our listings. This kind of threat is just as bad as him threatning to kill us over the phone or similar, and is treated as such. In the USA, making false threats of lawsuits when you have no intention of going through with them is illegal last time I checked. Its called barratry.

We take legal threats very seriously.

Your company has been notified more than once about the FreeSpeechStore. He commits libel/slander under the guise of free speech, then makes you pay to see his comments. This is a very shady business practice, and is putting you at risk as well, considering if you know about his abuses, and you let them continue..

Unfortunately, until the FreeSpeechStore is removed off of your network, the block isn't being taken down.

From you I'd take being called abusive as a compliment.

 No provider or user shall be held liable of any action taken to restrict access to material that the provider considers to be otherwise objectionable; or any action taken to make available the technical means to restrict access to material described.

So lets talk about having your case against us thrown out with prejudice.

That's free legal advice, after that I start charging.

See above about 47 USC 230.
 You spammed me in the past, that's sufficient to blacklist you. Per our SOS policy you have brazenly and unstoppably threatened or cajoled others into threatening lawsuits against the AHBL and SORBS, putting innocent parties in the middle of your own personal little war.

> This is the height of hypocrisy and has opened him

Speaking for myself, blow me, you may freely request my address of service, and I as the sole propriorator of the SOSDG and AHBL will happily provide it. Basically put up or shut up bitch.

I am still not getting any credit and I'm the one that convinced "Mr. Bruns" to expand the block on you. Such a shame.

Going back to what I said earlier, thank you in advance for blowing me. You have repeatedly threatened us with lawsuits to attempt to batter us into doing what you want us to do, that is harassment, and that is barratry, I would like to request you provide your legal address of service with the next flame you send NANAE because I intend to sue you for this continued pattern of groundless legal threats (literally cart00ney) and I'd hate to have to track you down to do so.

Apparently unhappy that I finally got around to blocking mail from the FreeSpeechStore.com, FSS has decided to threaten to sue me and sent me this lovely notification of that fact.

I forwarded to AOL's abuse department, requesting that they notify their user that harassment is against their terms of service.

As any legal expert will tell you, contacting the person you plan to litigate against without a lawyer is a bad thing, and will cause problems for you down the line, especially if you harass them.

More will come as I get it :)

Yeah, I'm aware of the fact that ahbl.org is down right now - we're uploading the new site as we speak. A lot of changes, and much nicer design. Should be back up in an hour or so.

Harassment by The FreeSpeechStore

It has been recently brought to our attention that Richard Scoville of The FreeSpeechStore is harassing AHBL users and our providers, as well as filing false police reports to cause problems with the people who he disagrees with.

FAQ

Q: Who is Richard Scoville?

A: Richard Scoville is known as the FreeSpeechStore (FSS, Margaret Morice, and other nicknames include FreaSpeechWhore). He runs a site where people can post statements and demand that the accused have to pay to read what he or other people wrote about them. Most of his comments about people are false, and tend to be of a libelous nature (Pay-per-libel, as we call it). In the past, he has been known to spam his libel to the victim, though as of late, he has stopped doing this.

He is located in San Antonio, TX.

Q: Is there information available online about him?

A: Yes, there are quite a few links - here are a few:

- Harassment by Margaret Morice / Richard M Scoville
- RipOffReport: Freespeechstore.com
- interocitor.net: Response to freespeechstore.com
- FreaSpeechK00k Mini-FAQ

Q: How many providers has he been kicked off of?

A: The current running-count is 3-5, however it depends on how you look at it. Prismnet/VNDX, ESpire, Grandecom, and now he is on RoadRunner business. He's also switched registrar over to VNDX again.

Q: What should we do if we are contacted/harassed by Richard Scoville?

A: If you are contacted or harassed by Richard Scoville, you should first tell him to cease any and all contact with you. If he refuses, and continues to contact you, file a police report for harassment. Scoville is also known for filing false police reports against people he doesn't like (he's filed several against the SOSDG and AHBL so far).

You should also consider speaking with a lawyer and finding out what options may be available to you legally (including libel/slander, harassment, extortion if he tried to make you pay to get him to leave you alone, etc)

Q: What were the false police reports over?

A: As far as we know, they were filed because people are using the tool 'wget' to spider and download his whole site. People only started doing this AFTER he went public calling 'wget' a hacking tool. For legal reasons, anyone who makes threats at us will have their site archived in case the information should ever be needed in the future (and wget fits this need perfectly).

We believe he is filing false abuse reports claiming that we are the ones doing it to him, even though they are coming from random IP space worldwide that we have no control over. We also suspect he has taken to forging log files in an attempt to cause issues.

Q: Is 'wget' a hacking tool?

A: No, and any experienced systems administrator or Linux user will tell you that it is one of the most useful tools that one can have on their machine. Wget is a file downloading tool that can be used to download from FTP or HTTP, and features spidering capabilities.

Wget is free software provided by The Free Software Foundation.

Q: Is this page a statement of fact?

A: No, it is page designed to give people the ability to easily locate information online about Richard Scoville, as well as some information from our own interactions with him. People are encouraged to read all the pages and decide for themselves.

now that I've assisted FreeSpeaksWhore in generating some free speech I have some questions for them for future articles regarding both my and their use of free speech.

1. FreeSpeaksWhore: How many times when I am referring to you may I use the term "AssMonkey" in one single post?
2. Same as 1 but in caps?
3. FreeSpeaksWhore: How many times may I say that your efforts debase and offend those who hold the protections of the Constitution very dear.
4. FreeSpeaksWhore: How many times in a given post may I call you terrorists, and say things like "Damn if they'd just hit the FreeSpeechWhore with that shock and awe campaign, perhaps no one would have complained about the war in Iraq.

5. FreeSpeaksWhore: would the term knobhead be usable to describe you? your significant other? your maternal lineage? your children, cat, dog or hamster?

6. FreeSpeaksWhore: If I were a blackhat hacker, would it be free speech for me to find out where you live, and post your name address and phone number so that people can call you at all times of night, exercising their free speech.

7. FreeSpeaksWhore: Do you have anything approaching a snowball's clue in hell?

8. And lastly, if I shouted "FreeSpeaksWhore is/are a bunch of fucking morons without a clue or prayer" and it causes a panic in a theater, is that protected speech?

9. the same but following it with "Attention the theater is on fire"

I am very interested in any and all matters regarding free speech and my First Amendment Rights please get back to me regarding these issues, IMMEDIATELY so I can properly protect my free speech.

Subject: RE: Legal Threats against the AHBL by FreeSpeechStore.com
Importance: High

Dear Mr. Kirch,

I understand and even agree that FreeSpeechStore.com is abrasive. I have seen some examples of the things you describe and happen to agree that many of the things they post are (as you have stated) harassing in their nature. We (RealLinx Inc.), however, find nothing illegal with their content nor do we see a reason to shut down their site as those postings do not violate our AUP.

Posting opinion and issuing legal threats on public forums are not something that the ISP should police. The Internet is a public vehicle just as telephone lines are. You certainly would not expect the phone company to disconnect someone's phone service for calling someone up and telling (or yelling to) them that they wanted to sue. That would be something you would take up with them directly, the police, a lawyer, etc... not the group providing the utility.

From our perspective, they (FSS) are a reformed SPAMmer. We do police SPAM. We do know that they used to send blatant SPAM (in 2003) and that they used to advertise their site on public forums. We addressed those issues with them at the time and threatened to disconnect them if they did not comply. We saw an immediate cessation of that activity and complete compliance with our requests.

We see no current evidence of SPAM from that network. If you are seeing SPAM from AOL and feel FSS is the source, then that would be something you would take up with AOL. We have no way of cross-referencing a user-name/email address on AOL to accurately match that to a name.

You are welcome to continue this dialog if you feel I have not covered all points or if you are in disagreement. Again, we sympathize that FSS is a non-friendly entity, but we do not agree that disconnecting them is fair.

Note: We will (per this email) ask that FSS tone down their public postings.

Visual Net Design is our customer and they host FSS. They are being copied on this correspondence. I know that the folks there know the FSS proprietor personally. Hopefully a few words directly will have an effect.

Best regards,

Darren Knapp

 Subject: Legal Threats against the AHBL by FreeSpeechStore.com

FreeSpeechStore.com, hosted on: 209-198-148-34-host.prismnet.net (209.198.148.34), has been for some period of time lobbing barratrous legal threats towards the anti-spam community. Their abuse and harassment is publically displayed on their website, and basic searches on USENET finds them spamming their site from their AOL account, and other errant behavior in the news.admin.net-abuse.email newsgroup. I am requesting that their provider shut down this site. If they are your direct customer, please terminate them for violation of your acceptable use policies. Should you have questions please let me know. Per policy their netblock has been blacklisted in the AHBL for legal threats against our group. Once they are terminated please contact me so that this entry can be deleted so as to not effect your other customers who might inherit this block.
